Films aren't the only entertainment on the roster. A locally produced music video also made the selection cut. Hell Caminos, a psycho-billy rock band (think piercings, leather, spiked hair and driving guitars), premieres "Old Snake Road" with zombies and impressive three-dimensional animation from Hawaii-based Hyperspective Studios. Locally based crew members from "Lost" led the shoot. The video premieres on Oct. 14 at the Loft, 115 Hotel St. in Chinatown.
